For security purposes and to help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify and record information that identifies each individual or commercial entity that enters into a customer relationship with the financial institution. For this reason, we may request the following identifying information: name, address, date of birth and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask other questions or request other documents meant to verify your individual or commercial identity.

Equal Credit Opportunity Act ("ECOA") Notice

Note If your application for business credit is denied, you have the right to a written statement of the specific reasons for the denial. To obtain the statement, please contact our ECOA Compliance Representative at UniFi Equipment Finance, Inc. within 60 days from the date you are notified of your denial. The Federal Equal Credit Opportunity Act prohibits creditors from discriminating against credit applicants on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, age (provided that the applicant has the capacity to enter into a binding contract); because all or part of the applicant's income derives from any public assistance program; or because the applicant has in good faith exercised any right under the Consumer Credit Protection Act. The federal agency that administers compliance with this law concerning the creditor is the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, Customer Assistance Group, 1301 McKinney Street, Suite 3450, Houston, TX 77010-9050.
